1. Background

Matrix Concepts Holdings Berhad (“MCHB” or “the Company”) is committed to promote and maintain high standards of integrity, transparency, accountability and ethical behaviour in the conduct of its business and operations.

This policy is designed to provide employees and stakeholders with proper internal reporting channels and guidance to disclose any improper conduct or wrongdoing within MCHB.

This policy has been adopted to promote alignment with the Whistleblower Protection Act 2010, Companies Act 2016 and Capital Market and Services Act 2007; and this policy should be read together with the Company’s Code of Conduct.

2. Objective and Scope

All employees and stakeholders may disclose to the designated person any wrongdoing or improper conduct (see Note 3 below) within MCHB that is taking place/ has taken place/ may take place in the future. No employee can use his or her position to prevent employees or stakeholders from exercising their rights or complying with their obligations as indicated in this Policy.

Only genuine concerns should be reported under whistleblowing procedures. The report should be made in good faith with a reasonable belief that the information and any allegations in it are substantially true and not be based on office gossip nor for the purposes of personal advantage or gain. Malicious and false allegations will be treated as a gross misconduct and if proven may lead to dismissal.

Any disciplinary action to be taken against MCHB’s employees after the conclusion of investigation of this nature shall be in accordance with the Company’s Disciplinary Policy. In the case of proven improper conduct or wrong doing involving stakeholders, the Audit Committee will decide on the next course of action.

Any employees who disclose improper conduct or wrongdoing in good faith and in compliance with the provisions of this Policy shall be protected against act of retaliation.
